The foreclosure crisis is not over. Homeowners need to know they are not alone. There is free help available. We address all of the options homeowners have when they are behind on their mortgage. Our goal is that they leave the workshop with information and a sense that they will survive this difficult time and thrive in the future.

Comments from homeowners attending the workshop:

“You all got straight to the point”

“It was very informative and realistic”

“I appreciated getting legal information on bankruptcy, having people presenting from different angles, and the speed, content and understandability.”

“I appreciated the willingness of presenters to take questions”

“It was very clear with difficult topics”

“The workshop helped me identify other resources that may help my situation”

“They kept it lively”

Presenters: Ellen Bernards, GreenPath Debt Solutions and Co-chair of the Dane County Foreclosure Prevention Taskforce Attorney Stacia Conneely from Legal Action of Wisconsin and Attorney Patricia Hammel, Herrick & Kasdorf, LLP.

The Dane County Foreclosure Prevention Taskforce wants to make sure that homeowners have the information they need to make good decisions and get the assistance they need. We are increasing the number of workshops this year in an effort to reach more homeowners in distress. They will take place every month on the 2nd Thursday at the Madison College (formerly MATC) Truax Campus beginning February 10, 2011. A special thank you to Madison College for providing free space for these workshops.

The Dane County Foreclosure Prevention Taskforce is a coalition of government agencies, non-profit service providers and other community partners working to implement a coordinated response to the foreclosure problem in Dane County through prevention, intervention, and neighborhood stabilization effort.
